

90     ABC No Rio & Celeste
156 Rivington/107 Suffolk
 abcnorio.org  artistsai.org

Two community arts centers: ABC has workshops, print shop, gallery, punk & political information, garden & meeting spaces. CSV is a huge and diverse cultural center, with several theaters & artists' studios. NYC's culture thrives here! ♦ B

Current Events websites to visit
 Planet Ark 🌐 planetark.org
 Independent Media Center 🌐 indymedia.org
 YouthLink 🌐 youthlink.org 🌐 gothamgazette.com
 Link to many newspapers 🌐 nycglobe.com

Jonathan ♦ E

◀ MTA Subway Stations. The vast system connects with over 40% of the country's mass transit! 3.5 million subway and 1.5 million take the bus. A $4 All Day Pass is a bargain if you take three or more rides. Subway & info: 718·330·1234  mta.nyc.ny.gov

86  Bluestockings Women's Bookstore
172 Allen St.
212-777-6028  bluestockings.com

Independent collective working to empower women, with feminist events, cafe & monthly readings. Eco-friendly organizing site for social, enviro & economic justice. ♦ B-17

87  Community HealthCare Network
92-94 Ludlow St. 212-477-1120

Offers free HIV testing. Women's health care free to teens, sliding fees for other services.

88  Economy Candy Shop
108 Rivington St. 212-254-1531

A neat shop with a long history. Shop in bulk for nuts, dried fruit and sweets. ♦ R-9

89   Essex Street Market
120 Essex St. at Delancey

A big place with different stores from different cultures that offer a variety of foods - our community can buy fresh fruit & vegetables at low prices. ♦ R-9

Madeleine ♦ N

82 P.S. 20
166 Essex St.

This big, clean school works with students from different cultures. All have a chance to get an excellent education. We get lots of fresh air on the playground. ♦ P. 9

83  East River Park
From Montgomery St. to 14th St.

It doesn't matter what race you are, you can hang out in a fun, different and enjoyable place. Ball fields, fishing & riverside path. There's a big compost center there & youth activities at the old Fireboat house (L.E.S. Ecology Center: 212-420-0621)! ♦ G-12

85 Site of Adam
Purple's Garden
of Eden & Homestead
184 Forsyth St. (now a new building)
eclectart.com/edra.html

One of the original community garden sites (Garden of Eden) & former home of an original Lower East Side urban ecologist. ♦ D·17

92 Forsyth Conservancy Garden
Delancey & Forsyth

There's a strong Chinese influence here. In the mornings, people bring their pet birds in cages to make beautiful music. The garden is part of the seven-block long D. Roosevelt Park. People do Tai Chi, ball games, garden & enjoy wildlife here.

93   Lower East Side
Tenement Museum
90 Orchard St. at Broome St.
212-431-0233  tenement.org

Check out the historic model building inal artifacts in the storefront, even if don't take the complete tour. ◆ D-1

94      Henry Street Settlement
Abrons Art Center & Play
466 Grand Street at Pitt St.

212-598-0400
Young artists get to show their talent on the big stage and get involved with countless entertaining, educational activities. 