

City As School

16 Clarkson 212-926-4259
w") cpmcnet.columbia.edu/dept/physio/schools/cas

dent, colorful & charismatic, school is full of caring people.
owing environment! Compost-greenhouse out front. ♦ I-17

Carmine Afterschool Recreation Center

1 Clarkson St. at Hudson
2-5418 nycparks.org

after school for extraordinary with great counselors. Go ing, play basketball, and do s & crafts. ♦ A-12 Also visit es J. Walker Ballfield. It has ound a long time, and is a ity "Eye Catcher". ♦ I-18

e Playgrounds shown on LoMap are evaluated by New York for Parks, provided their list (they also provide involvement info, 212-838-9410).

Historic Forest

La Guardia Place and Houston St.

rees & plants replicate the forests York before it was colonized.

are 395 species of animals in NYC's core! Downtown's gardens & parks me baby gray & black-furred squirrels ring, fireflies at dusk in summer, ting Monarch butterflies as autumn s and Harbor seals can sometimes be sunning themselves on rocks in the River beneath the Williamsburg Bridge nter. There are pigeons & doves, sea sparrows & starlings, mallard ducks adian geese, even fierce Peregrine falcons & teeny Ruby-throated hummingbirds! Our State Bug is the Ladybug!

Silvia ♦ R

Patagonia

101 Wooster St. 212-343-1776

ia has caring policies, uses organic and makes long-lasting clothes. The ers activism information, too.

Scholastic Book Shop

557 Broadway
3-6166 scholastic.com

oys, puzzles & curriculum materials, too.

Housing Works Used Book Cafe

126 Crosby St. 212-334-3324

ood selection of music & books.

Using this Map

Sites are arranged in numerical order on the 4 sides of LoMap. That's right, 4 sides:

- Both the North & South faces have West & East sides.
- Each site's listing is right next to the side of the map it's located on

The Icon Key is on the reverse

These colors refer to categories of sites:

- Nature Spots
- Green Info & Shops
- Go Power
- Good Food
- Special Places
- For Youth
- Sad Sights

19 Madison Square

Madison & Fifth bet

It's a peaceful habitat! Kids relax with squirrels & birds.

22 Little India

Lexington in the h

A fascinating district of sh spices and scents to explore

